FLOOD TIDE AT THE OLD SWEET

Say Week of Card Parties, Dances and Dinings.

A GOLF TOURNAMENT HELD.

There are Many Richmonders Among the Guests Regaling Themselves at the Fine Old Resort-Visitors From the Sweet Chalybeate.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) OLD SWEET SPRINGS, W. VA., Aug. 18. Midsummer gaieties continue at flood tide at the Old Sweet, the past week having been filled with card parties, dancing, driving, dining, golfing and bowling.

The dance on Monday evenng was one of the most brilliant of the season. About thirty people from the Sweet Chalybeate, chaperoned by Mrs. Frances Markell, of Charleston, W. Va., came over and added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

To Mrs Markell and Mrs. James D. Gatewood, of Parkersburg, is due the decided success of the evening. About seventyfive of the patrons were at the tables, and the large parlor never held a more enthusiastic number of players. Miss Lottie Dodd, Louisville; Mrs. David Howell, Sweet Chalybeale; Mrs. M. C. Roach, Yonkers, and Miss Jean Lee, of this place, made the highest scores, and Mrs. John Tilton, of Norfolk, the lowest. The prizes were exceptionally handsome. After the were exceptionally handsome. After the game Mrs. Markell and Mrs. Gatewood entertained at a very delightful supper. Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Christian, University of Va.; Dr. and Mrs. Small, of University of Va.; Dr. and Mrs. Small, of Cincinnati; Miss Herbert A.Claiborne, Richmond; Mrs. W. C. Roach, Yonkers, N. Y.; Mrs. G. M. Donalson, Charleston, W. Va., Mrs. J. L. Sexton, Charleston, W. Va.; Lee Alexandria; Mrs George L. Couch, Charleston, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Q. D. Vaughan, Louisville, and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hamberlin, Richmond, Va.

The supper given by Mr. A. M. Agelasto, Jr., after the dance on Saturday evening was the handsomest given here this scanon. Enjoying Mr. Agelasto's hospitality were Miss Kate Talley, of Richmond; Miss Binnie Briggs, of Nashville; Miss Marie Dodd and Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, of Louisville, and Mr. C. C. Patterson, of Springfield, Ohlo.

A MELON FEAST.

A MELON FEAST.

Some of the younger set on the same evening delighted in a melon feast on the awn. These young people were Misses tottle Dodd and Ethel Fitzgerald, of Lottie Dodd and Ethel Fitzgerald, of Louisville; Lucy Couch, of Charleston W. Va.; Hildreth and Hallle Gatewood, of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Masters Vaughan, of Louisville; Charlie and Harold Wrenn, of Norfolk; Bobble Carroll and Harold

On Tuesday afternoon the Pattersons, with Misses Dodd and Briggs, drove across Peter's Mountain to "Sizer's" for an old-time country supper, and returned by moonlight. Quite a large party, made up mostly of Louisvillians, under the chaperonage of Mrs. E. A. Hewitt and Mrs. W. A. Kelly, epent last Monday morning at Beaver Dam

Hardly a week passes that visits to the White Sulphur Springs are not made. Messrs. Isaac Davenport. McCaw Tomp-kins, Austin Smith and Dr. W. W. Grier rode over this week, returning the same

We had a most charming visit refrom a merry party summering at Goshen.
Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, of Richmond, was the chaperone, and she managed her crowd ost skilfully during their day and night

GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Athletics are always popular here. In spite of the heat, the enthusiasm manifested in the late Golf Tournament knew no abatement until the finals were play-ed. There were twenty-two entries, twelve gentlemen and ten ladies. Mr. G. S. Couch, of Charleston, W. Va., won in the gentlemen's event, and Miss Ethel Roberts, of Louisville, in the ladies', Mr. Rodman Grubbs, of Louisville, and Miss Jennie Wrenn, of Norfolk, were the run-ners-up in the respective instances. Mr. R. White, the g Drizes, a set of blubs and a box of balls.
On Tuesday afternoon an exhibition game was played between Messrs. Couch.

Grubbs and White. Mr. White allowed his opponents handicaps of nine and twelve points, and was beaten by each man.

The ball game between the Sweet Chalybeate and Old Sweet boys was witness by a very interested crowd. The score to 6 in favor of the Old Sweet Springs. The many friends of Mrs. Christopher Tompkins are delighted to have her with them again. Mrs. Tompkins has been confined to her cottage for more than a wee with her little daughter Mary, who had a mild case of fever. Mary received quite an ovation the first day she was brought to the lawn. Dr. Tompkins is spending his vacation here with his familily. He and Mr. Charles Davenport, with their daughters, spend much time on horseback leying this gorgeous mountain country. McCaw, of Richmond, is a prominent figure on the lawn, and enjoys hugely a game of cards.

Mrs. Herbert A. Claiberne, of Richmond, is a delightful addition to this already choice company, and may often be und the centre of a group of cultivated.

charming people.

The well-attended services on Sunday morning, conducted by Dr. Small, of Cin-cinnati, attest the fact that patrons of the Old Sweet are not altogether given over to wordly pleasures.

Dr. Small and his interesting wife have made a host of friends here

NEW ARRIVALS.

Among the week's arrivals are the fol-

Among the week's arrivals are the following:

W. H. Martin and wife, Norfolk, Va.; Miss Elizabeth Martin, J. G. Martin, Misses Lidus and M. Martin, Mr. Vawter, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Zollinger, Mrs. Stone, Miss Virginia Starke, Mrs. E. Maule and maid, Philadelphia; Miss Harriet E. Barse, Kansas City; Mrs. Joseph N. Anthony and daughter, Richmond; Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Richmond; Miss Allee Hotchkiss, Miss Sophie White, Miss Aule Hotchkiss, Miss Sophie White, Miss Addie Bowe, Richmond; Mrs. G. M. Donaldson, Charleston, W. Va.; Miss M. Kinley, Norfolk; Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr., Richmond, Va.; Robert Dickinson, West Virginia; Miss Maryaret Graham, Lexington, Va.; Mrs. Charles S. Briggs, Miss Elsie Briggs, Miss Binnie, Nashville, Lenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Grubbs, Louisville; J. C. Macon, Pittsburg, Pa.; Dr. J. B. McCaw, Richmond; Judge John W. Barr, Miss Anna Barr, Louisville; J. W. Price, West Virginia; H. Toler Boyraen, Newark, N. J.; E. J. Kawan, Virginia; Mrs. M. J. Lenane, N. Y.; Miss Harriet and Eloise hunner, J. M. Hunter, Jr., Mrs. W. L. Truitt and son New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Truitt and son New York city; Mrs. George Truitt, Washington; Ellis Crenshaw, Richmond; B. Gray, Tunstall, Norfolk; Charles Davenport, Richmond; H. R. Bush, Louisville; Lewis C. Smith, Louisville; J. P. Ferguson and maid, J. R. Womack, Jr., S. P. Nottingham, Baltimore; H. Homer Haynes, Cliften Porge; W. P.

Wright, Paint Bank; Border Bowman, Ohio; C. C. Patterson and wife, Norfelk; J. H. Arnott, Wheeling; LeMonde G. F. Wolfe, White Sulphur Springs.

THE BRUNSWICK INN.

Views of Unsurpassed Loveliness of Lowland and Highland,

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WAYNESBORO, VA., August 18.—During these days when the sun's rays are beating down with the fierce light and heat of a torrid clime, and the weather is such as to surpass that in the memory of the ubiquitous oldest inhabitant, especially fortunate do those account themselves fortunate do those account themselves who have sought the shady lawns and reeze-swept galleries of Brunswick Inn. At present the hotel and its surround-ings and appointments recall to mind the memory of its best and most prosperous days, when in capable hands and under skilful management it was wont to be patronized by representative people from all parts of the State. And those who are now casting around for an ideal summer rescript at which to spend a few weeks or days can come to the Brunswick with every assurance that Mr. Loth, the prorictor, and his energetic assistants, spare no pains or trouble to make their stay, however brief, a most enjoyable one and one not likely to fade soon from their

For Mr. Loth has assured his friends that he will spare no expense to maintain a house which, free from the tinsel and show and glamour that surrounds more pretentious resorts, shall be excelled by one of similar kind in the mountains of

Situated in the most beautiful portion of the Shenandoah Valley, within a few hundred yards' walk of points of eminence and advantage, whence may be described lews of unsurpassed loveliness and glorramic stretches of mountain and owland scenery, the place is one which by its very location, seems to exhale and by its very location, seems to earner and induce that feeling of rest and calm and repose which is so essential to the seeker after health, and so stimulating and invisorating to those who, tired out with the demands upon their time and nervous the demands apply that the energy by a never satisfied society, can recruit their strength and find case and repose for their wormout nerves.

While Manager Loth has too much sen timent in his nature to believe that the way to the hearts of chivalrous men and tender women is down their throats, yet he has discernment enough to recognize that "the paramount issue" of a popular that "the paramount issue" of a popular resort is keeping the table bountifully furnished with a choice variety of well-cooked and well-served food; while the hotel is amply supplied with the indispensable requisite of every resort that deserves the name—namely; an abundance of the clearest and purest water gushing of the clearest and purest water gushing forth from never-failing springs.

There are, doubtless, few places in the mountains of Virginia which are surrounded by more beautiful drives than the Brunskick. In whichever direction one goes, the eye is greeted by a varied landscape of beautifully kept and well-tilled farming lands, white on all sides, the mountains, grand trangull and lovable, present energing and everable, present ever-changing and ever-varying buse and tints of bige and green. Buck of the hotel flow the south branch of the Shenandoah River, into whose Staunton, Mountain Top or some other locality of interest, many of which are within a few hours' drive of the hote! Last week Mrs. A. E. Donnan and Mrs Wm. H. Talbott chaperoned a large party o Wever's Cave, sixteen miles north of the Brunswick, where a most enjoyable day's outing was spent. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Blair P. Wilson. of Hampton, accompanied by Miss Shield, a charmingly attractive young lady, visited the Caverns of Luray.

Among the recent Richmond arrivals at the Brunswick are the following:

Mrs. S. P. Waddill, with her three sons and a daughter: Mrs. G. B. Wilson and son; Mrs. A. E. Donnan and four children: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb and son; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Moseley and four children: Miss Lucy Lay and Master Flizhuch Lafferty: Miss F. M. Hill: Captain J. E. Blair and wife; Miss Belle Taylor; Miss Mary Horff.

THE WEEK IN STAUNTON.

Hot Weather Powerless to Step the Galeties of Young People.

STAUNTON, VA., August II.—Not even
(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
"the hottest weather of the season" can "the hottest weather of the season can keep young folks from a german, and one of the very nicest of the season was given at Highland Park Wednesday night, by the young gentiemen of Staunton. The german was led by J. Lewis Bumgardner. The King's Daughters served temptmg Fertemments. Modern of Tennessee, with J. W. Laird; Miss Lutie Moon, of Texas, with W. B. Timberlake Elizabeth Jones with Waddell Kinney; Miss Lucy Baylor, of Nortolk, Roger Young; Miss Russell Wasso Kentucky, with Tayloa Blackford; Fannie Wasson, of Kentucky, with R. P. Beil, Jr.; Miss Emmie Thomas, of Ricamond, Va., with W. R. Tyree, Jr.; Miss [Richmond, with Robert Brooks; Miss Jessie McClanahan, of Pennsylvania, with Donald Allen; Miss Helen Parish, with English Eyster, of Baltimore; Miss Fannie Stubbs, of Baltimore, with Carvel Sun merson: Miss Winnifred Barron, of Baltimore, with Fielding Olivier; Miss Elezatimore, with Fielding Olivier; Miss Ediza-beath Fisher, of Richmond, with Alex. Tyree; Miss Nannie Jones, of Alexan-dria, with Harry Taylor; Miss Lizzie Loosi with H. H. Wayt. Tuesday morning the Apperson camp-ing party left for Frankin, West Va., at the head-waters of the Potomac river.

The party consists of R. D. Apperson superintendent of the Street-Railway, Gas and Electric Light Company, his wife, three cridren; his mother, Mrs. I. M. Apperson, of Little Rock, and his sister. Mrs. Owen, also of Little Rock, and he two children. An advance courier was sent out last week with tents, beds, cooking utensils, provisions, and servants. The party will remain a month.

Waller Scott of Richmond, who Ars. Water scott of Richmond, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry Huch-inson, left Tuesday for Afton. Mrs. John B. Cary, Miss Gillie Cary, and Mrs. Lizzie Daniel, of Richmond, are spending some time at "Caymont," near Staunton.

Miss Gettle McGuire, of Richmond, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. F. Robertson, of this town. Miss Margaret Smith, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Lucy Baker.

Nicholas T. Cooke has returned to Richmond, after spending his vacation in Staunton. Stonewall Jackson Camp is getting verything in readiness for the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, which meets here in October.

STRONG HOPES OF RECOVERY.

Mrs. Palmer Better Than at Any Time _ - Since Accident,

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) (Special Displace to the Times.)
CHRISTIANSBURG, VA., August 18.—
Mrs. Palmer's condition is better this evening than at any time since the accident, and she continues to improve day. There are strong hopes of her re-

No. 4

A perfect mouth wash. A large bottle, a small price. 25c. T. A. MILLER, 519 E. Broad St.

THE GAIETIES AT WARM SULPHUR

Brilliant Euchre Party With Two Hundred Guests.

Grand Cotillon of the Season Took

THIRTY HANDSOME PRIZES.

Place Tuesday Evening, Gracefully Led by Mr. G. T. M. Gibson. Beautifull Women.

(Special Dispatch to The Times. WARM SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., August 18.—One might think that euchre parties were becoming monotonous, but erish the thought! Never have they been so popular, never has excitement run so high, and never has there been a nore delightful or brilliant one than or Thursday night, when Mrs. Eubank and Mrs. Glover gave one of two hundred guests in honor of Miss Katherine and Miss Charlotte Haile, of Staunton. It was a perfect success, because it was given with all the thought and elegance and generosity which are the characteristics of entertainments given by the hostesses of the Warm, and it was a perfect suc-cess, because never have there been great-er favorites here than the Misses Halle, Each so charming and attractive in her own personality that any comparison would be impossible. It is a case of Girotle and Girofla.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the guests entered the ball-room, where they were gracefully received by Miss Charlotte Haile in a charming gown of pink crepe lisse; Miss Katherine Halle, in the most ethereal of white chiffon and fluffy lace creations, and Mrs. Haile, of Augusta. a handsome gown of rose brocade, empire effect, showing to perfection the delicate and classical beauty of the wearer. The prizes were a great feature of the evenng, being both beautiful and handsome The highest score was made by Miss Min-nigerode, who received a very elegant illuminating clock. The second score by Miss Precious Moore, whose prize was a handsome plate. Some of the other happy victors were Mrs. Welch, of Baltimore, benedictine bottle; Mr. G. T. M. Gibson. gold scarf-pin of fine workmanship; Miss Sears, heavy gold link sleeve buttons; Mrs. Cromwell, handsome pencil; Miss Rosser, ebony, inlaid with silver, powder box; Mr. Stovall, unique bottle opener; Miss Haskill, gun-metal penel; Dr. Willams, gold sleeve buttons. After the distribution of thirty prizes a handsome course supper was served. GRAND COTHLON.

The grand cotillon of the season took place Tuesday evening, led by Mr. G. T. M. Gibson, of Baltimore, Mr. Gibson has al a wide experience as a leader of cotil-ons, and the success of the evening was argely due to the ease and grace with which he led. The dance closed with a beautiful and striking flower figure, improvised by the ender. The grace with which the long branches of flowers were wielded by the dancers as they were ingeniously led through the labyrinthine mazes, in combination with the magnificence of the gowns, was startling in its beauty and was long and lustily encoured by the large audience. Some of the couples were Mr. Gibson and Mrs. Weld, Colonel Whitney and Miss Hannan, Mr. and Mrs. Hendman, Mr. Stovall and Miss Davis, Mr. Garneau and Mrs. Gibson, Dr. Williams and Miss Has-kell, Mr. Lehr and Miss Galatley, Dr. Bragg and Miss Waters, Mr. J. Bragg and Miss Sampson, Mr. Thorne and Miss Rosser, Mr. Lancaster and Miss Libbey, BEAUTIFUL COSTUMES.

BEAUTIFUL CONTUNES.

Mrs. E. H. Bright, of New Orleans, In a gown of pink crepe lisse and most exquisite old lace. The delicate tint of the fabric showed to perfection the dazzling peauty of the wearer.

Mrs. G. T. N. Gibson wore a gown of black net, spangled and elaborately trimmel with silver, and in her queenly beauty, with her glittering tiara, might have been taken for the goddess of night, Diana herself.

Miss Galattey, of New Jersey, in a gown of heaven's own blue, made with Grecian simplicity, but which admirably set off the pure patrician beauty of the

Mrs. R. H. Sprague, of New Orleans n a rich gown of white elaborately trim ned with lace, especially suited to her nandsome brunette type.

A most magnificent costume was worn y Mrs. Weld, of Baltimore, a lovely and harming blonde. This dress was comcharming blonde. This dress was comunic of white satin gleaming with emrolderies of silver.

Mrs. Grandy, of Norfolk, a very striking costume of maure crope and handsome duchesse lace. Notwithstanding this daz-zling array of young matrons, the graceful maidens held their own in this contest of beauty, and never did Miss Bayard ap-pear more lovely than in the ariest of silk gauzes, interwoven with bunches of wild flowers, over gold satin.

Miss Haskill, in a charming gown of blue with panels of lace. The younger Miss Haskell, dainty with organdle and lace. Miss Bonner Semple, an exquisite gown of pink chiffon trimmed with block velvet. Miss Libbey, white muslin and lace. Miss Harnan, pearl crepe de chene and white satin. Miss Davis, white organdie Miss Harnan, pearl crepe de chene and white satin. Miss Davis, white organdie and lace. Miss Rosser, a dainty gown of white, the baby waist showing the exquisite contour of neck and arms. Miss Gordan, an airy robe of heliotrope with effective touches of block velvet. Mrs. Horace Hawes, radiant in a golden crepe de chene. Mrs. Murphy, fascinating in black and white. Miss Davison, whose with bead beauty was set off by a charmhigh bred beauty was set off by a charmrobe of rose-color. Miss Sears, pale blue, garlanded with pink forget-me-nots. Miss Mary Johnston, whom it is the good ortune of the Warm Springs this season 'To Have and to Hold," were a trained obe of soft pink taffata.

Mrs. Whitney, of Washington, white obe of lawn and mull, ethereal and lainty as her own beauty. OTHER ENTERTAINMENTS.

Among other entertainments were Among other entertainments were a drapartic evening by Miss Schuster and Mr. Ranson: the minstrels by the waiters of the Warm, a most enjoyable affair; a moonlight excursion to Flag Rock by Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hawes, where Mr. Hawes had prepared a delightful surprise by a display of fireworks; a charming card party by Mrs. Lehr. of Baltimore, whose perfect taste and elegance aid justice to her reputation as a charming hostess; last, but not least, the delightful children's party by Mr. and Mrs. Sprague. It was a glimmse of fairyland to see into the ball-room and hear the merry prattle, where every known amusement was provided by the hostess. Many little hearts beat high with excitement as the prizes of brooches, pins, bonbons, dolls, etc., were distributed.

The friends of Mrs. Glover will be glad to know that she is recuperating from the property libres.

The friends of Mrs. Glover will be know to know that she is recuperating from her recent illness. Though seldom seen, Mrs. Glover's presence is always felt, especially by those suffering or in trouble. Her indomitable will and energy and gentle patience win for her the admiration and respect of all.

AT DAGGER'S SPRINGS.

Burlesque Cake-Walk and Phantom Ball the Features of the Week.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
DAGGER'S SPRINGS, VA., August 18.-The burlesque cake-walk last Friday evening was a great success. The Empress of China, notwithstanding her partner was an American captain, sustained her part admirably, never forgetting she was the ruler of the Boxers. The captain maintained the supremacy of the Stars and Stripes, the last scene showing the Empress smiling and bowing to his will. All did their part admirably. Maud Muller, of course, won all hearts, while the Queen of Hearts had Cupid in constant attendance. The judges, after caraful and due consideration, gave their opinion, and delegated one of the guests to present the prize. In a speech that proved he was well skilled in the art of flattery, and would fain name each as the successful contestant, he stated the judges had awarded the prize to the ine succession contents, he stated the judges had awarded the prize to the "Empress of China" and the "American Captain." The decision was received with Captain." The decision was received with great applause. The prize was then presented, carefully wrapped in tissue paper; all drew near to see the cake, and shouts of laughter greated the appearance of a regular old-fashioned Virginia batter-cake.

A Phantom ball was given Tuesday night under the auspices of Mrs. E. D. Redd, of Richmond. At 9 o'clock Mr. Redd took his seat at the piano, and as the plaintive strains fell upon the ear twenty-four spectral figures gilded in, and with slow and measured tread marched to and fro, as though seeking rest; on with slow and measured tread marched to and fro, as though seeking rest; on went the sad tones, the music volcing the hopeless wee of the phantom. Suddenly all was changed; joyful notes of hope and peace were heard, and following the ghostly ones were seen two lovely angels, radiant with all the celestial beauty of childhood. Then came the always welcome "Virginia Reel." At its close the masks were removed, and there was much amusement at the many mistakes made as to who was who, two of the phantoms having at one time been mistaken for interlopers, and but for their ready wit would have been ordered to unmask. It was delightful. The two lovely little ones—Eleanor James, of Hampton, with her soft, sweet eyes and loving ways, that have made her the pet and darling of all, and pretty Douglass Hankins, her beautiful curls dancing with each graceful movement—were fit emblems of the angels, and the feature of the evening. Many guests from the neighborhood participated in the ball. After refreshments the dancing continued far into the night. All unit d in thanks to Miss McBlair for one of the most charming entertainments of the season.

of the season.

The phuntoms were Mrs. E. D. Redd,
Mr. Wiley, Charlestown, W. Va.; Mrs.
Oswall Eve, Washington; Mr. W. C.
Claborne, Newport News; Captain and Mrs. A. J. James, Misses Wallace, Miss Mrs. A. J. James, Alsses Walhace, Alss Walthall, Miss McCrum, Master Armistead Pendleton, Mrs. E. G. Getty, Miss Nannie C. Bentley, Master Bruce Pendleton, Miss Jean Williamson, Mr. W. B. Hankins, Miss Elvise Haden, Miss Willie Haden, Mr. and Miss Woltz, Miss M. B. Jones, Master Mark Hankins. There were pre-sent Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. E. B. Bentley Mrs. M. A. McCrum, Mrs. Early, Mrs. A. L. Barraud, Mrs Hankins, Miss Mc-Blair, Mrs. Hampton, Miss Archer, Mr-Haden, Mr. Charles Price, Mr. R. S. Lackey and brother, and many others.

RAWLEY SPRINGS.

A Unique Cake-Walk, Followed by Delightful Hop.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) RAWLEY SPRINGS, August 18. Last Monday evening Rawley Springs was the scene of a gay and unique enterainment, which the usual enterprise and lash of the smart set at the springs made Promptly at half past 8 o'clock a motly assemblage might have been seen in an upper corridor of the hotel; then as they passed under the lamps on the lawn en route to the ball-room they were seen to be in full cake-walking costume. Entering the ball-room in couples a modern cake-walk followed. Added to the skill of the dancers were their costumes, gaudy and dancers were their costumes, gaudy and thoroughly appropriate to the occasion. Those participating in the entertainment were Miss McCarthy with Mr. Nalle, of Washington: Miss Louise Stacy with Mr. Robert Alsop, of Richmond: Miss Grief with Mr. Lindsay, of Alexandria; Miss Lindsay and Miss Eliza Willis, of Winchester, with Mr. McCarthy, of Richmond.

After the cake-walk a hop held sway, After the care-walk a nop near sway, after which the dancers, being tired, repaired to the brilliantly lighted pavilion on the lawn, where by the generosity of the proprietor and ability of his steward, a delightful repast was served. Ice-cold melons and cooling drinks were enjoyed while beauty and wit held high carnival. while beauty and wit held high carniv Music, instrumental and vecal, was then indulged in, and all hands retired at a late hour voting the evening theroughly charming.

Among the Richmond guests at Rawley are to be noted especially Mrs. W. A. McCarthy, who is chaperoning Miss Agnes McCarthy and Miss Louise Strey. (It is not necessary to do more than mention the names of these charming girls, who are known so well to social circles in the city, unless it is to say that the same reputation for wit and grace has followed. harming. city, unless it is to say that the same reputation for wit and grace has followed them to Rawley); Mr. Frank McCarthy, Mrs. Oscar Swipeford and children, Mr and Mrs. Boswell Alsop, Mrs. Miller Mc-Cue, Mr. Robert Alsop, Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Alsop and children, Miss Pable Glasgow Mrs. McCormick, and Miss Ellen Glasgo who is recuperating after a winter's labo on one of the most intersting novels o modern fiction. In the quiet and retire nent of upper verandas she is laying th for another book, with which to charm the public.

SWEET CHALYBEATE.

Tennis, Golfing, Bowling, Dancing and Cards While the Time Away. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

SWEET CHALYBEATE SPRINGS, August 18.—This week has been one of the most pleasant ever spent at this charming resort. The hotel and cottages are filled with intelligent and delightful people, and each duy our genial host is puzzled to know where he can store away another guest who has just arrived. Every form of amusement is to be found here, tennis, boviling, golf and cards for the morning, riding and driving in the afternoon, and dancing in the even-

Monday evening Mrs. Schell entertain Monday evening Mrs. Schell entertained at a six-hand euchre party, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames McCurdy, Crant, Howell, Woodward, Eakle and McCoy: Misses Barham. Neely, Leigh, Hilliard, Carmichael, Gordon, Taylor, Boykin and Chamberlain; Messrs. Moore, Hume, Denmead, Grant, Hammer and Dr. Brown. The same night Miss Grant entertained a party of friends at the Old Sweet.

Tuesday night the young people enjoyed a delightful dance in the spacious ballroom. Very handsome costumes were worn by Misses Gordon. Boykin, Barham, Lee, Randolph and Neely.

room. Very Misses Gordon, Boykin, Barham, worn by Misses Gordon, Boykin, Barham, Lee, Randolph and Neely.
Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Coleway gave a bowling party, which was the most enjoyable event of the season. The invited guests were Misses Boykin, Gordon, Barham, Lee, Neely, Grant, Hewett, Goldwell and O'Connor: Messrs, Kogers, Brann, Porter, Brann, Porter, Caldwell and O'Connor: Messrs, Kogers, Boykin, Old, Cook, Drs. Brown, Porter, Hiter, Burlingham and Pender, Thursday night there is to be a "Tacket and many guests are expected from Old Sweet.

MOSTETTER'S Indigestion or CELEBRATED Dyspepsia as for Nervousness.

The Bitters is a sure cure for these, as well

No one need suffer from

Sleeplessness Flatulency, or Malaria Fever and Agua All druggists sell it.

IN LAND OF GOSHEN

A Gypsy Supper Served Under Starry

VISIT TO OLD SWEET SPRINGS.

Merry Party Drove Over in a Six-Horse Coach for a Delightful Visit-Visitors to Alleghany from the Alum-Many Late Arrivals '

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) THE ALLEGHANY HOTEL, GOSHEN, VA., August 18.-The person who can introduce unique or original entertain-ments at a summer resort is, indeed, a delightful one to have around, and certainly the moon ight coaching party gotten up by the young man and given to the young ladies of the Alleghany Tuesday night was original and successful in the

The large coach was filled to overflowing, and the party drove about three and a half to four miles by the light of the

The rendezvous was at a sulphur spring in a beautiful dell, and refreshments were served in truly gypsy style, the guests all gathered around, while the light of a large lantern and the moon at its height cast shadows and made everything still more uncanny.

It was a lovely scene, and raminded one of the place where "the weird sisters dwell."

dwell."

One youth was so inspired by the softening influence of his surroundings that, like little Tommy Tucker, he sang for his supper, which consisted of sandwiches, cheese, pickles, olives, candies, and a large log of beer.

Our hosts were Messrs, Kenton Harman, Hornes and Wade Bell. Joe Thompson.

Horace and Wade Beil, Joe Thompson, T. Brock, Ballard Smith, Buck Langhorne, Lathrop Morehead, M. Pilson, E. T. Pilson, Wily, Harry Hodges, A. S. Tanner, and the lucky recipients were Misses Pilson, Constance and Emily Knox, Addie Bowe, Alice Hotchkiss, S. White, Mary Masters, Elizabeth Morehead, Janie Cameron, Jeanne Levy, and Edith Jones. Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. I. N. Jones, and Mrs. Clarence Milhiser were the chaperons. Apropos of coaching parties, it is well to mention a most congenial crowd that went from here to the Old Swest last week. They arrived at the Alleshany Station in high spirits, and drove over in a six-horse coach to this dear old place. It was a delightful trip, and, while all had a fine time, yet, they seemed to be glad to be home (the Alleshany) again. Mrs. E. D. Hotchkies chaperoned the party, which consisted of Misses Alice Hotchkies, Lizzie Morehead, Ruth Tanner, Sophie White, Addle Bowe, Amelia Pilson, Joel Perrin, Ballard Smith, Wiley, and Morehead, and several others.

A Subscription Euchtre. Horace and Wade Bell, Joe Thompson, T. Brock, Ballard Smith, Buck Langhorn

A SUBSCRIPTION EUCHRE.

Monday night a subscription euchr party was given. They are always plea sent for those who do not dance, and afte party was given. They are always preasant for those who do not dance, and after spirited playing the prizes were given to tirs, Pope, of Florida; Miss Lizzie Hetchleiss, and Mr. J. B. Wood. Mrs. Harman, of Goshen, draw the convolation.

Nor was our sister resort slow in furnishing her share of galety for the weekin fact, the Alum has the largest crowd it has had for eighteen years, having between six and seven hundred guests.

Miss Campbell, from Philadelphia, was entertained with fifty of her Alum friends in hoya! style at the Alleghany Saturday eight. The party arrived at 9 o'clock on the Alum train chartered for the occasion, and after dancing for some time supper was served in the dining-room. Although our host, Mr. J. B. Wood, had short netice of this private entertainment of 50 guests, yet he was equal to the occasion and everything went off beautifully.

Among those of our Richmond friends sion and everything went off beautifully. Among those of our Richmond friends who came over were the Misses Jeffreys, Powe, Sadier, Waddill, Barnes, Mrs. Waddill, Gordon, Wallace, and Dorson, Judee Waddill, Attorsey-General Montagne, Elein Graves, Charles Bowe and E. A. Saunders, Jr., and seventeen others. Monday morning a very exciting bowling contest took place, composed of the champers of the space, Those who alived were Mrs. Charles Millhiser, Mrs. Pone, Scobie White, Edith Jones, Mourice Pilson, Kenton Harman, Joel Perfin and Pene, Souhie White, Edita Jones, Santier Pilson, Kenton Harman, Joel Perrin and Letton Ament. After very close playing the prizes were won by Miss Edith Jones, who was first two points ahead of Miss Souhie White, and the gentleman's prize was won by Mr. Maurice Pilson.

Sonkie White, and the gertleman's prize was won he Mr. Maurice Pileon.
RECENT ARRIVALS

Among recent arrivals are Edgar Powers. Richmond: Harry L. Hodges. Norfolk: James N. Williams. Jr., N. C.; W. H. Bell, F. C. Jordan, Norfolk: L. B. Revnolds, Newnort News; F. T. Rates, Jr., Aubrey Strous, Richmond: G. G. Goalton, Jr., L. R. Henchserger, Harrisonburg: Miss Emily J. Knox, Richmond: W. G. Williams and wife, Pertermouth: Miss Cora, Younger, Richmond: Walker Lewis, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Baldwin, Baltimore; D. S. Harwood, Clarence Millniser, Richmond: Mrs. Mary C. Robertson, Columbia, S. C.; J. H. Ferguson, Coshon: S. Morton, J. S. Elerson, Pa.; W. G. Hatcher, N. Y. Mrs. J. S. Boynton, Griffin: Miss Maude Jones, Atlanta; F. D. Wood, Pa.; E. D. Hotchkiss, Jr., Va.; H. B. Groene and wife, A. S. Tanner, Richmond: V. F. Wilson, Rockbridge county; Frank E. Davenport, Richmond; W. H. Goodman, Lee, Va.; M. G. Hunter, Atlanta; P. H. Powers, Richmond; C. M. Jenkins and wife, Norfolk; Mrs. J. S. Bownton, Griffin: Miss Maude Jones, Sarah Jones, W. A. Knowles, Kome, Ga.; J. Graham Davidson, Millboro Charles, F. A. Saunders, Jr., Richmond. Maude Jones, Sarah Jones, V. L. Kome, Ga.; J. Graham Davidson, Millboro Springs; E. A. Saunders, Jr., Richmond.

THE LIFE AT COLD SULPHER.

A Glorious Hay-Ride on an Elongated

Wagon. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) COLD SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., August 18.—There is quite an interesting bit of history connected with the Cold Sulphur Springs. The property was granted by George III. in 1750 to one John Dumlop, and the present owner, Hon. J. S. Craig, is the only man from that day to this who has had a legal title to the property, although it has passed through numerous hands. It is evident that there are some men who, knowing a good thing, have not the nerve or capacity to make their insight visible to other people. Nature may who has had a legal title to the property sight visible to other people. Nature may be grandly picturesque, but it takes genius to add that necessary touch of art which, lending much, takes nothing away from the original beauty of the scene. Mr. Craig has transformed nature's ruggedness into a place of beauty and a "joy foreyer."

worthy friend John Dunlop would Our worthy treed and Doubley wond open his eyes wide with astonishment if he could step back to earth and view the changes that have taken place since the gift of His Most Gracious Majesty was bestowed—a, three-cornered tract of land in a bounless forest, with its bold, cold stream of water, whose chemical resources are unbounded, and which is as refreshin and palatable as it is efficacious.

Life at the Cold Sulphur this week has Life at the Cold Sulphur this week has been unusually attractive because of the number and variety of interesting events that have taken place. Card parties too numerous to mention, horseback parties, bewling and croquet have whiled away the hours of the most glorious days of

The most delightful and unique event of the week was a large hay-ride which took place on Tuesday night. The wagon—one of the big farm kind—was elongated beyond all recognition and piled high with hay as sweet-scented as that which Maud Muller raked. It was a billowy mass, as comfortable and springy as a bed of

WHEN YOUREAD ADS GAIETY GALORE

Our Weekly Talk on Store Doings Calculated to Assist Shoppers.

Beyond a reasonable doubt the Richmond people are far more comprehensive of store advertising than those of most Southern cities; in fact, few of the establishments in larger towns expend as much energy in presenting seiling events as some of our home merchants do.

The ability of a store to offer merchandise is usually dependent on the purchasing sagacity of its buyers, who, lke a ing sagacity of its buyers, who, like a reporter with a good nose for news, must have the same qualification for getting goods to an advantage. The shrewdness of department-store buyers is well illustrated in the fact that these stores frequently offer standard goods at prices which prohibit the maker from selling them. The divious ways for securing the most wanted merchand se are legion, bemost wanted merchand se are legion, be-sides the reputation of a house for closing out a volume of goods in a short time frequently causes manufacturers to ship requestly causes inautractices of any this particular house their products at such low figures the public response to the amazingly low prices is spontaneous. The careful study of a firm's advertising will soon disclose how truthful it is. The character of the establishment must always be considered, and when a reputa-ble house announces a special saving it is part of a shopper's duty to respond one way or another. The more successful a sale is just so much greater will the store exert itself each succeeding time We have given some reasons why goods are offered at some stores for much less than others ask, but it will consume considerable more ink than has been used in the five previous articles on this subject before a thorough knowledge of store advertising can be had. As these weekly talks are intended to enlighten shoppers on the subject of advertising as we find t, a striking lesson may be taught from recent event at one of our big stores. When a house has a wide-spread reputa-on for handling crowds when goods are offered at very low prices, a combination of makers utilize the distributing force of that particular house as an outlet for thousands upon thousands of dollars' worth of the most desirable merchun-dise. The Meyer Store, corner Foushee and Broad Streets, has really been perand Broad Streets, has really seen performing a public service for the past week. The event referred to is Lockhart's Mil-End Sale, an event which is given in the principal store of every large city throughout the United States. Mr. Lockhart's position is as unique as it is remunerative. It has been estimated that his salary exceeds that of the Pres dent. his salary exceeds that of the President, and when he brings his goods to a store it is under conditions that he be given 'carte blanche" in making prices all to harmonize with the askings for his

the idea of huying up the mill-ends of various textile fabrics, which come in lengths of from eighteen inches to five yards. When the ends would aggregate a goodly quantity he sent them to some store and inaugurated his famous Mill-End Sale. The tremendous success of this sale may be imagined from the fact that Mr. Lockhart is not only a power among the mill people, but also among manufacturers of various articles. The remarkably low prices asked for other than fabrics at these sales is explained by Mr. Lockhart's almost endless connections. In order, to make his sales unqualifiedly Lockhart's almost endless connections. In order to make his sales unqualifiedly successful, he has various kinds of goods made up in greater quantities than the average wholesale houses handle. One average wholesale houses handle. One factory alone makes one hundred thousand Wicker Rockers annually for his sales. It is the same with many other lines. The Mill-End Sale is now running at the Mayor Store with at the Meyer Store, with special induce-ments for Monday and Tuesday shoppers. This store will fill your mail order for anything advertised as much to your satisfaction as if you called in person. The Meyer Store is probably the only department store in the South, strictly neaking. Shoes, Man'curing, Hairdressling, Clothing, Furniture, and, as the firm's motto goes, "Everything for Every-body" is carried by this live establish-

FANCY WORKERS.

capable of finishing pillow tops, making Rennaissance Lace-work, and all kinds of embroidery, and who can take in work; send your addresses to The Hand-in-Hand Co., No. 377 Broadway, Room 1999, New down. There were four tall horses with their trappings and bells to make merry and awake the echoes among the quiet hills. The moon came out in its full grandeur, bringing out the deep shadowy woods, and the near and distant moun-tains scalloping the horizon as far as the eye could reach. The horses took the road with long strides, and occasionally exhibted a little more galety than was usual. which called forth many small squeaks from a feminine voice on top of the hay.

Cut rates means a great saving. Watch ease Brothers' advertisement.

Skirting the hills on the Bells Valley oad the merry party broke the silence with songs, old and new, and after many niles of delightful enjoyment returned to the hotel at a late hour. The chaperons were Mrs. Percy Hawes, Mrs. Whitehurst, Mrs. John Etchison, of tichmond, and Mrs. Harvey Seward, of

On returning a large number of the earty were invited to a "Dutch Spread," riven by Miss Sally Dunnington, of Farmville, Va., one of the most attractive o say the least elaborate and complete and was the finishing touch to an evening and was the finishing touch to an evening of unalloved pleasure.

Miss Helen Camp, of Richmond, is added to the list of pretty and attractive girls at the Cold Sulphur.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Manson, Miss Eva Moore and Mr. Donald Moore, of Lynchourg, are registered for the season.

Mrs. Morris, of Richmond, Va., with her daughter. Miss Janet Morris, are among the recent arrivals.

The arrivals of the week are Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Manson, Jr., Miss Ev Mrs. N. C. Manson, Jr., Miss K.Va. Moore, Mr. Donald Moore, Lynchurg: J. H. Anderson, Richmond: J. S. Conier, Newport News; J. M. Grove, H. D. Grove, Hermitage, Va.; H. B. Miller, Hermitage, Va.; Mrs. W. B. Miller, Miss Martha Miller, William B. Miller, Jr., Staunton: H. C. McCormick, Wilson Springs, Va.; Mr. Alexander Walker, Richmond: L. C. Denson, W. J. Whitehurst, Robert Gemmell, Jr., Richmond: A. E. Ateyeh, Trysoll, Syrin; E. Butcher, Mrs. Butcher, T. J. Jefferson and wife, Petersburg: H. M. Nuckols, Richmond: W. H. Burroughs, Mrs. W. H. Burroughs, Norfolk: R. J. Martin, Richmond: W. B. Müler, Staunton: Geo McGilweary, New York: J. C. McCilvary, F. F. Bates, Jr., Richmond: John E. Jenkins, Jr., Norfolk: W. R. Johnson, Weel Va.; J. Mason Miller, Jr., Staunton, W. J. Whitehurst, Richmond; J. D. Shendan, Levington: J. Danforth, Mrs. Page, Richmond: Miss Nigratia Sadlar, Richmond: M. S. Mr. Donald Moore, Lynchburg; J. H. An-Richmond; J. D. Shendan, Lexinston: J. Danforth, Mrs. Page, Richmond: Miss Virginia Sadler, Richmond; M. G. Hunter, Atlante: W. H. Gardenan, Lee, Va.: J. T. Jeter, Richmond: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Walton, W. P. Walton, Jr., Osslov Walton and nurse, Stanford, Kw.: C. M. Jentins, Norfolk: Mrs. C. M. Jankins, Norfolk: Thee, P. Walles, H. T. Willies, Folk: Thee, P. Walles, H. T. Willies, Richmond. Predericksburg: F. Munce, Richmonf.

Her New Wherf.

The wharf and ware-rooms of the Du-mont steamer are rapidly being complet-ed at her landing in Rocketts, between

AT BLUE RIDGE

Three Germans Each Week Besides the Nightly Hops.

VERY BRILLIANT "BAL POUDRE."

There Was Appropriate Music for Each Figure, and the Favors Were Unusually Pretty - Gov. Tyler and Daughter Were Guests.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) BLUE RIDGE SPKINGS, VA., August 18.—The full tide of the season of 1900 at Blue Ridge Springs has been reached during the past week, and the expansiveness of the accommodations here have been taxed to the utmost. Our host, Mr. Phil. F. Brown, has met the un-usual demand for space most skillfully, but even his ingenuity could not meet all the applications for rooms that have come to him in the last ten days. When the Governor of Virginia telegraphed on The Governor of Virginia telegraphed on Wednesday that he desired to come with his daughter. Mr. Brown was in sore trouble and tried to stop him en route, but his Excellency knew the fount of healing nested in the Blue Ridge Springs, and he came to drink its waters. By the courtesy of the guests the Governor and Miss Tyler were provided with temporary consister to await a vacuum.

courtesy of the guests the Governor and Miss Tyler were provided with temporary quarters to await a vacancy. This has been one of the gayest and most successful sensons that this resort has seen for years, though always well patronized. Since the first of August there has a perfect round of pleasure, with three germans each week, the regular nightly hop and the morning dances besides. On Friday evening Miss Louise Walthall, of Richmond, gave one of the most brilliant entertainments ever seen at Blue Ridge—a "ball pounde" and 'favor german." It was a nicturesque scene when Mr. Warren Wellford, with the fair hostess. Miss Walthall, entered the ball-room, leading the long line of dancers in a grand march, with all its kyleidoscopic changes. The favor table for centifiem was presided over by Mrs. Phil. F. Brown, Mrs. Cernella Branch Stone and Mrs. Cernella Branch Stone and Mrs. Cernella Branch Stone and Mrs. Lucius J. Polk, and the ladies' table by Mrs Olive Scott, Mrs. Phelan and Mrs. Duesbery. The favors were un'que and beautiful. Appropriate music for each faure was arranged, valuable suggestions for which were given by Messrs. Van Way and Ricketts, members of the fine orchestra at Blue Ridge. Refreshments were served during the evening, and the occasion was one of unalloyed pleasure, and Miss Walthall's guests felt that they were her debtors for a bright and happy memory.

were her debtors for a bright and happy memory.

THE DANCEKS.

Among those who participated in this delightful entertainment were Miss Duesbery, of Mobile, with Mr. Martin, of Bonnoke; Miss Moss, of Galveston, with Mr. Fred Barksdale, of Roanoke: Miss Phesian, of Atlanta, with Mr. John Wood, of Roanoke, Miss Coroline Boale, of Most Reapoles, Miss Coroline Boale, of Most lan, of Atlanta, with Mr. John Wood, of Roanoke; Miss Caroline Heale, of Montromerv, with Mr. Steve Clarke, of Bedford City; Miss Teddy Edrington, of Ft. Worth, with Mr. Malcomb Phelan, of Atlanta; Miss M. A. Phelan, of Atlanta; Miss M. A. Phelan, of Atlanta; Miss Bello Tyler, of Richmond, with Mr. Heth Tyler; Miss Rainey, of Fort Worth, with Mr. W. W. Williams, of Roanoke; Miss Borum, of Norfolk with Mr. Robertson, of Darville; Miss Ives, of Norfolk, with Mr. Blakemore, of Roanoke; Miss Lord, of Galveston, with Mr. Archle Paine, of Koanoke; Miss Edwards, of Weldon, with Mr. Edward R. Turnbull, Jr., of Lawrenceville; Miss Mary Page Randolph, of Tallahassee, with Mr. Green, of Weldon; Miss Arette Polk, of Galveston, with Dr. Plerce, of Weldon; Miss Weller, of Weldon, of Roanoke; Miss Rende, of Roanoke, With Mr. Cole, of Weldon; Miss Johnson, of Roanoke, Wish Rende, of Roanoke, with Mr. Moon, of Memohls; Miss Naish, of Atlanta, with Dr. Badeau, of Roanoke; Miss Walker, of Tallahassee, With Prof. Bondurrat, of Mississippi; Miss Carney, of Norfolk, with Mr. Ives, of Norfolk. CHAMPAGNE SUPPER.

CHAMPAGNE SUPPER.
After the german on Tuesday night,
Messrs, Turnbull, of Virginia, and Coles. of North Carolina, gave a champagn supper to their friends.

supper to their friends.

Among the guests were: Miss Estelle Edwards, of North Carolina, with Mr. Edward Turnbull, of Virginia; Miss Lilla Ives, of Virginia, with Mr. Charles B. Cole, of North Carolina; Miss Margaret McKinney, of Virginia, with Mr. Roper, of Virginia; Miss Della Weller, of North Carolina, with Mr. William Davenport, of Georgia; Miss Page Randolph, of Florida, with Mr. George Green, of North Carolina; Miss Teddie Edrington, of Texas, with Mr. Malcolm Phelan, of Georgia; Miss Polk, of Texas, with Dr. Pierce, of North Carelina; Miss Minnle N. Darden, of Virginia, with Mr. Doughty, of Georgia; Miss Louise Walthall, of Virgina, with Mr. Mrs. Goech, of North Carolina, wife, have been with us for some time nd the arrival of Governor Tyler, Virginia's Executor, makes us we are entertaining some of our country's notable men. Other prominent men here, are General Billups, of Colimbus; Colonel Cockrell, a distinguished jurist of Florida; Colonel Spaight, of Texas, and Major Todd, of Smithfield, jurist Virginia.

STATELY DAMES. The stately matrons, who add dignity to the colony of health and pleasure-scekers here, are many, and of varied attractions—among these are the wife of our proprietor, Mrs. Phil. F. Brown, Mrs. Bloxham, Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. Walker and Mrs Cockrell of F Walker, and Mrs. Cockrell, of Florida-Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Gooch and Mrs. Bagler, of North Carolina; Mrs. Raomal, and Mrs. Chrisolm, of South Carolina; Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Edrington, and Mrs. Polk. of Texas; and a host of Virginia dames, represented by Mrs. Russell Robinson. Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Manson, of Rich-mond. Mrs. Polkn. of Georgia; Mrs. mond; Mrs. Prelan, of Georgia; mond, Mrs. Freian, of Superson Pugh, of New Orleans, and many others, who belong to the "army of noble martyrs," who nightly chaperone the pretty girls' who make up the bouquet of tyrs," who nightly chaperone the pretty girls' who make up the bouquet of "American beauties" at this place.

Among the guests of this week are:

William H. Mann, Petersburg, Va., Misses Frances and Ida Billups, Columbus, Miss., Mrs. M. H. Bagley, Raleigh, N. C., Miss Williams, Norfolk, Va., B. H. Franklin, Bichmond, Va., J. C. Parker, Franklin, Va.; R. Galloway, and wife, Memphis, Tenn.; A. G. Williams, Richmond Va.; Joseph R. Ives, Norfolk, Va.; A. F. Starr, Palistine, Texas; Alexander L. Boudurant, Birmingham, Ala.

Among the September guests will be:

Among the September guests will be: Among the September guests will be: Mrs. M. W. Bolling, Mrs. Knox, and Mrs. M. A. Walker, of Huntsville, Ala.

SEWING MACHINES.

$35 on easy payments will buy our eleant-finished latest-style ball-bearing New ng machine made. Special discount to ash buyers during the month of August, $1 per week will our our $25 New Ideal. Any style machine repaired. Do not pur-chase any sewing machine untl you see as. NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE OFFICE, No. 902 East Broad Street, Rich-

